

29th ANNUAL

GEORGETOWN WOODEN BOAT SHOW

October 20 and 21, 2018

The 29th Annual Georgetown Wooden Boat show will feature one of the nation's best wooden boat exhibits, a wooden boatbuilding competition, children's model boatbuilding, maritime art & crafts, food, music and more. All events will take place on the waterfront in Historic Downtown Georgetown. Admission is free to the public. The Show is produced by the Harbor Historical Association, a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. Proceeds will benefit the South Carolina Maritime Museum.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20 11 AM - 6 PM

Over 140 classic wooden boats will be displayed in the water and on Front Street. Vessels ranging in size from kayaks to large yachts will be exhibited in 16 exhibit categories. There are also categories for model boats and cradle boats.

The Wooden Boat Challenge will begin at noon. Two-man teams will compete to build a rowing skiff within a four-hour time limit. At 5 P.M. the competitors will test their completed skiffs for seaworthiness in a rowing race across the Sampit River. The teams will be judged on speed of construction, quality of work and rowing ability. Cash prizes will be awarded to first, second and third place winners. The top three teams from the October 2016 Boatbuilding Challenge in Georgetown and the May 2017 Boatbuilding Challenge in Beaufort, NC will be eligible to compete for the Dynamite Payson National Boatbuilding Championship.

At 7 P.M. an awards ceremony and dinner will be held for boat exhibitors, wooden boatbuilding competitors, sponsors and guests. Prizes will be presented to the winners in each of the 16 exhibit categories, to the People's Choice Award winner, and to the winning Wooden Boat Challenge teams.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21 11 AM - 4 PM

Sunday's Wooden Boat Show will feature classic wooden boats on display, a Youth Sailing Regatta, a Cardboard Boat Regatta plus a beer and wine garden, food, music and more. Visit woodenboatshow.com for event updates.
