

31st ANNUAL GEORGETOWN WOODEN BOAT

October 17 and 18, 2020

The 31st Annual Georgetown Wooden Boat Show will feature one of the Southeast's best wooden boat exhibits, a wooden boatbuilding competition, children's model boatbuilding, maritime art & crafts, food, live music and more. All events will take place on the waterfront in Historic Downtown Georgetown. Admission is free to the public. The Show is produced by the Harbor Historical Association, a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. Proceeds will benefit the South Carolina Maritime Museum.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17 11 AM - 6 PM

Vessels ranging in size from kayaks to large yachts will be exhibited in the water and on Front Street. Visitors will be able to meet and talk to wooden boat craftsmen, manufacturers and owners. Maritime arts, crafts, models and demonstrations will also be on display.

The Wooden Boat Challenge will begin at noon. Two-man teams will compete to build a rowing skiff within a four-hour time limit. At 5 P.M. the competitors will test their completed skiffs for seaworthiness in a rowing race across the Sampit River. The teams will be judged on speed of construction, quality of work and rowing ability. Cash prizes will be awarded to first, second and third place winners.

At 7 P.M. an awards ceremony and dinner will be held for boat exhibitors, wooden boatbuilding competitors, sponsors and guests. Prizes will be presented to the winners in each exhibit category, to the People's Choice Award winner, and to the winning Wooden Boat Challenge teams.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18 11 AM - 4 PM

The fun and festivities will continue on Sunday with wooden boats on display, a Youth Sailing Regatta, a Corrugated Boat Regatta with school groups and civic organizations competing, a beer garden, plenty of delicious food, and live music. Be sure to visit woodenboatshow.com for event updates.
